

GRANTEE PRESS KIT

Congratulations on receiving a grant

The following guidelines are intended to help you publicize your organization or program. If you have any questions, email Jennifer Kelley at Jenn@ChildrensAuction.org

The Children's Auction publicizes grants and grant stories through print, digital and broadcast media, social media, and our website. Please share your success stories and photos with us so that we can promote the partnerships that strengthen our communities.

What you can do

A grant from the Children's Auction is a partnership, and behind every grant is the story of the good work being done to make our communities stronger. It is also an occasion for the Children's Auction to acknowledge our donors and let them know how their gifts are being used to improve the quality of life for everyone in the Greater Lakes Region.

You can publicize the Children's Auction support in a number of ways:

Your website

Create a link on your website to the Children's Auction site, <https://www.childrensauction.org/>. You can also include the Children's Auction's logo where appropriate. See logo use details below.

Contact local media

Using this press release template as a guide, contact local news organizations to let them know about your project and your grant from the Greater Lakes Region Children's Auction. We would be happy to provide a quote for your press release that is specific to your organization. And, please share the news with us! Send your press releases to Jenn@childrensauction.org

Tell your community

Share information about your grant through your newsletters, annual reports, lists of supporters, and social media. When announcing the grant on social media, link to us on Facebook, Instagram, Linkedin, and on Twitter.

Logo use

We encourage you to use our logo where suitable. Please contact us if you need a different format of our logo.

How to acknowledge a grant from the Children's Auction.

About the Greater Lakes Region Children's Auction

The Greater Lakes Region Children's Auction is an annual event held every December in central New Hampshire. The fundraiser made $2,100 in its first year and has come a long way with the help of countless volunteers and donors who have helped turn it into a major annual campaign. During the 40 years that the community has come together, more than $7.5 million has been raised for local charities, all through volunteer efforts, community donations and corporate sponsorships. Thank you, Lakes Region! For more information, please visit childrensauction.org or call 603-527-0999.
